Pathways...
...to connect ministry today to an everlasting investment in the future of your church.
...to provide church members a vision for future needs and ministries.
...to instill confidence amongst your membership in the management of future gifts.

A church legacy ministry creates pathways... new avenues of giving to provide for church ministry needs today and tomorrow. Whether through endowed gifts, in which investment earnings are used, or through unrestricted gifts, which can be spent entirely, a legacy giving program motivates members of your church to support projects and ministries of your church both today and tomorrow.

Through a legacy ministry program, every member of your church will have an opportunity to be generous towards the ministry of your church.

• Gifts of any size can be made to legacy ministry funds.
• Memorial and honorarium gifts can be made to honor loved ones.
• Bequests to ministry not only provide future gifts, but also illustrate a legacy of faithful stewardship to those left behind.

Yes, you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God.

Getting Started

Your church should appoint a Legacy Ministry Team (or committee) to:

- Set parameters—what ministries will the legacy gifts fund?
- Develop policies for receiving contributions, investing endowed and unrestricted funds, and determining how earnings are to be distributed
- Draft a Legacy Fund document for approval by the church
- Choose an institution to invest the funds
- Promote the legacy ministry

For Future Generations

A legacy ministry can serve as a memorial stone erected by your church to remind future generations of God’s provision and care. Not only will this ministry provide for future generations, but it will serve as a pathway for future generations to continue the legacy of giving to share the gospel message until Jesus comes!

So Joshua called together the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe, and said to them, “Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’ tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel forever.”
